By signing below, customer acknowledges and agrees:

- I have received or been given access to the St. Croix Trailers Owner's Manual, Maintenance Checklist, and other applicable documents.
- I understand that the Owner's Manual is the primary guide for trailer safety, operation, towing, and maintenance.
- I understand that the Know Before You Tow Guide and Maintenance Checklist are quick-reference tools only.
- I understand that I am responsible for safely towing, loading, operating, storing, inspecting, and maintaining the trailer after delivery.
- I understand that water, propane, equipment, inventory, supplies, and customer-added items can change trailer weight, balance, and towing behavior.
- I understand that I am responsible for using a properly rated tow vehicle, hitch system, brake controller, and towing setup.
- I understand that local health departments, fire marshals, DOT authorities, state agencies, and other inspection authorities may have additional requirements for my trailer or business.
- I understand that I should not modify the trailer, electrical system, propane system, plumbing system, frame, roof, equipment layout, or major components without understanding the effect on safety, compliance, warranty, and weight distribution.

- I understand that St. Croix Trailers does not control how the trailer is loaded, maintained, modified, towed, stored, or operated after delivery.
- I understand that failure to properly inspect, maintain, load, tow, operate, or modify the trailer may result in trailer damage, property damage, equipment failure, injury, or death.

7. Customer Acceptance
